Francisco Market Report of the 11th :. The California and San Francisco Pacific Sug'r Refineries have entered into a written agreement, binding their respective companies now to advance the price of Eugar for the next three months. The readers of the Union well noderstand that these two refineries are bucking against the Bay Sugar Refinery, and seem determined, like the dog in the marger, to hold pos-session—not to make any money themselves, nor to let the Bay hows a large increase of consumption, or what, perhaps, is the rath, the very low prices raling, and a very general belief that prices would not long continue down to the present rate, has provoked a very extensive speculative inquiry, not only from the trade at large, but also from consumers; families having the trade at large, but also from consumers; families having the trade at large, but also from consumers; families having the trade at large, but also from consumers; families having the deck.

Political Reform.

In the present condition of Hawaiian polities, it is a difficult and somewhat delicate operation | stand for its undsmental law. to criticise with absolute freedom and impartiality, matters pertaining to our civil service. Allowing for the sake of argument that the Royal Proclamation which overrode the Constitution in 1864, is entitled to respect as a legitimate perplexing and demoralizing. The age is past pression we may give to our political feelings, revolutionary. Or, we may gradually become convinced by suitable arguments and circumgreat healer, that the present-well, yes,-Constitution is the best thing possible, all things bewife and child, Neil Kennedy, Chas Hunt, P H Tripp, W H ing considered, and that the old one was behind the times and unfit for an enlightened and highminded administration. And we may enthu- For SAN FRANCISCO: siastically and devotedly commit ourselves to the Constitution to our last dollar; and then it may happen in the ordinary course of events that our conscientious rulers, for reasons satisfactory to themselves, shall publish, some quiet morning, a And Other New Zenland Ports, connecting new-Constitution, containing principles diametrically opposed to the present, and declaring the preceding one to be "hereby cancelled;" which ingenious bit of administrative tactics will of course bring upon the late strong patriots the awkward dilemma between a hasty and humili ating political conversion, and remaining suspected plotters and malcontents. Or, a new administration may arise, who shall restore the Constitution of the last two reions -which political retrogression would place certain individuals upon. So that whatever may happen, under that article of our present interesting political creed which places the Constitution of the state A. P. Jordan. in the position of a Cabinet Minister or a member of the Privy Council, to wit,-" to hold office at the King's pleasure,"-the results are sure to be inconvenient to somebody. And whoever freely discusses these subjects in a public way, is likely to be regarded as an extreme radical, a Jacobin; or if his views happen to be politically orthodox now, they may be quoted against him with damaging effect under the next act of the civil drama. With these possible difficulties before us, and in spite of them, we wish to use our privilege of free discussion, and give a short space to the suggestion of certain reforms much needed in the St. George's Benevolent Society! Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Legislative Assembly, and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members thereof, such mendment or amendments shall be entered on its arnal, with the yeas and mays taken thereon, and referred to the next Legislature; which proposed amendment or smendments shall be published for the three months previous to the next election of Representatives; and if in the next Legislature such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by two-thirds of all the members of the Legislative Assembly, and BE APPROVED BY THE KING, such amendment or amend ments shall become part of the Constitution of this country."

The words which we have emphasized give to an otherwise cumbersome and somewhat impracticable provision, an atmosphere of levity and nonsense of the most masquerading type. Of course this method is useless in regard to any reform that the King may object to, while as to REAL ESTATE FOR SALE PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY changes that he may favor, it would be much the best and cheapest way for him to amend by Royal effect after one year's notice. There are any oher features of the Constitution that are o uttely bad, and there is so much left out that ough to appear in every Bill of Rights, that if amelment was a practical thing, nothing better ead be done than to amend by repealing the wholeighty articles in one motion recognize equal rists, the sovereignty of the People and a Government of three Estates.

It seems clear, at however great is the need of reform, the wi to it is rendered practically inaccessible by dootic limitations against civil liberty. Even if he steps were more available, such is the undueinfluence of the crown in the Government, that does not seem very probable Fifty Elegant Presents that important earges could be effected in the present state of olitical intelligence among the Hawanans. It inot probable that the present Constitution can urvive even for a single generation; there is a ertain constitutional weakness about it which reders such a conclusion imperative. Whether the Hawaiian Government will be able to survee it, is a question whose solution is dependent upon the length of time that that decree of desptism continues to sap its strength and
